

ESTANDON BIO

Domaine de La Cadenière - Réserve Gourmande Rosé - Vin Biologique

AOC Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence, Provence, France

PRESENTATION

"It all began here in the 1950s, at the Vallon de la Cadenière (Lançon de Provence), while the grapes were harvested again with the cart coupled to the mullet, then in 1973, our first winemaking, elaborated this wine, from the plantation of the vine to the sale of the bottle. For 3 generations the Estate has been supporting our family. It was our grandparents, Léonie and Louis, then our parents, Gérard and Pierrette, who shared this passion with us. Respect for the land and traditions are our watchwords. Since then, it is in this spirit that we have always respected the principles of organic farming and that we have decided to formally engage in this process".

TERROIR

Ideally located between the Luberon, the Alpilles and the Mediterranean, the vineyards of the estate cover a variety of soils that allow us to offer tender and elegant rosé wines.

WINEMAKING

Night mechanical harvest. Short film maceration. Pressing. Malolactic thermo-regulated alcoholic fermentation blocked. Traditional vinification in stainless steel vats, controlled temperatures.
